CITRUS TREES: First class stock and large stock is rare. The severe freeze in California has stopped getting trees from there this year and the heavy plantings in Florida have depleted stock there. I have close to five thousand trees here of standard varieties and while they last will sell the Walters, Marsh and Inman Grapefruit, the Parson Brown, Pineapple, Valencia oranges and Villa Franca and Eureka lemons, baled:

HOME GROWN BALLED: ¾” to 1½” Caliper, $2.00 each, $21.00 dozen, $125.00 per 100.

1” and over Caliper $3.00 each, $33.00 dozen, $250.00 per 100.

Very large, $3.50 each, $29.00 dozen, $300.00 per 100. Tangerine and Mandarin oranges are not sold by caliper, but by age, and these are $3.00 each, $33.00 dozen, $250.00 per 100.

Limes, Thornless, Tahitian, ¾” to 1½” $2.50 each, $27.00 dozen, $200.00 per 100; 1” and up, $3.50 each, $38.00 dozen, $300.00 per 100.

RANGPUR LIMES: Red fleshed and large, a wonderful fruit. ½” to 1½” trees $2.25 each, $21.00 dozen.

FODER GRAPEFRUIT: The rose tinted flesh, early and fine flavored. ½” to 1½” trees $2.25 each, $24.00 dozen.

Kumquats: 2 yr. buds, $2.00 each, $21.00 dozen; few large trees $5.00 each, $50.00 dozen.

Ponderosa Lemons, small trees $1.00 each, $10.00 dozen; ¾” to 1½” $2.50 each, $25.00 dozen.

Limes and Kumquats are all on Rough Lemon roots; rest are mainly on sour orange roots, but have few on rough lemon roots, but only sour orange will be sent unless buyer authorizes the rough lemon, some in these only on R. L. Have about 150 Marsh grapefruit on grapefruit roots which have done splendidly in the big Falturrisa grove; these will be sold 20 per cent less than regular prices.

BUCCYE TREES: We have made a specialty of these fine trees and in January will have several car- loads coming in for delivery then with bare roots. The following shows the varieties, roots, sizes we can furnish. But as demand is heavy and stock limited, cannot guarantee late orders.

OTHER FRUIT TREES

PEACHES: Northern peaches will not fruit here. You must get varieties from South China or Ceylon. We have three and large home grown two year trees, bailed. Honey, Early, Jewel Medium and Red Ceylon late or end of June and the last the best. 75c each, $7.50 dozen, $60.00 per 100.

PLUMS: A few varieties will fruit fairly well. Big, two year, home grown trees. Excelsior, deep wine red, Terril, large yellow meaty plum, 90c each, $9.00 dozen, $70.00 per 100.

GRAPE: Northern grapes do not fruit. California grapes die with root rot. Some fine hybrids live and bear splendidly. Luikfata like Concord, Valhallah, large and red, Cloots, smaller, black but delicious. Champenel needed to pollenate others, red. Two year vines bailed 50c; $5.00 dozen.

FIGS: Not commercial, but few are good. Magnolia, large handsome fruit, fine for preserving. Celeste, small, blue and delicious, 50c each; $5.00 dozen.

JAPANESE PERSIMMONS: A delicious fruit. 1½” each; $15.00 dozen.

POMEGRANATES: Fruiting. Does well. 2 year bushes $1.50 each; $10.00 dozen.

GUAVAS: Fruits abundantly, makes delicious jelly. Large, field grown 2 year plants $1.50 each; $15.00 dozen. Smaller ones $1.00 each; $10.00 dozen. Cattley Guava, smaller fruit, but handsome bush, $1.50 each; $15.00 dozen.

PAPAYAS: The delicious melon growing on a tree, male and female, and picturesque plant. Trees 5’-6’ balled $1.50 each, $15.00 dozen. Smaller trees $1.00 each, $12.00 dozen.

CARISSA: A beautiful, evergreen shrub with lovely white flowers and bright red berries making delicious jelly. Large 2 year plants $1.50 each, $15.00 dozen.

FITANGA: A handsome dwarf tree bearing a delicious ribbed fruit somewhat like a cherry. 2 year large plants $2.00 each, $20.00 dozen.

JUJUBE: A dainty tree with glossy foliage and mahogany colored fruit, pleasant when ripe, but delicious when dried or preserved. 2 year seeding trees $1.00 each, $10.00 dozen.

MANILA TAMARIND: A stately tree bearing pods with sweet pulp. 2 year, large plants $1.50 each, $15.00 dozen.
